

Article VII. High Density Residential, District R-3

Sec. 70- 49 Statement of Purpose and Intent

This district is intended to establish areas where residential housing of a medium to high density capacity can be located. This district will provide for maximum residential flexibility, utilizing a variety of residential alternatives, while still preserving the essential characteristics of a residential district. This district also allows for certain compatible public and semi-public and very limited commercial land uses, which are intended to serve the needs of the residents of the district. The following regulations are designed to stabilize, protect and promote this type of development, and to ensure that a suitable and comfortable living environment will be provided for people of all ages.

Sec. 70- 50 Permitted Uses.

Unless otherwise provided in Section 70-51 of this Article, the structures to be erected on land to be used in the R-3 Residential District shall be for one of the following uses and its permitted accessory uses; provided that, with the exception of multi-family dwellings, only one main building and its accessory structures may be erected on any lot or parcel of land in this district.
